I further authorize KCSAHDA to use the group photograph taken at the KCSAHDA Indoor Comp for future promotional and publicity purposes, without obligation or liability to me. (Note participation in the group photo is voluntary). I acknowledge that by submitting this entry electronically, that I have read this agreement carefully and agree to abide by the rules and procedures for this competition as listed on this page.

PRIZES AND TROPHIES •••••

Heartland Sword:

The Highland trophy for the oldest premier age group is the Heartland Sword. This award is presented by the Kansas City St. Andrew Highland dancers in memory of Dr. and Mrs. Wallace McKee.

Denise Irving McNally Most Promising Beginner Award:

This award is given to the Beginner dancer who, in the judge's opinion, displays the skills and attitude to progress in Highland Dance. It is given by Mary Beth "B" Klein in memory of a dear friend and longtime member of the Kansas City dance community. Denise was instrumental in carrying on the Kansas City tradition of Saturday morning dance classes that we still hold to this day. She strongly encouraged dance friendships regardless of your dance school with so many of these becoming lifelong friendships. Denise loved and nurtured so many of us as Beginner dancers and so this award is a perfect way to remember her impact on Highland Dance.

This award also comes with a $100 scholarship to be used by the recipient towards dance classes or a workshop. It is sponsored by Mary Beth "B" Klein, Tina Scheppers, and Jeanne McBride.

Madeline McDowell Spirit of the Dance Award:

This award is given to the Novice dancer who, in the judge's opinion, most captures the joy and spirit of highland dance in her or his performance.

This award is given by the Kansas City St. Andrew Highland Dancers in loving memory of a very special young lady, Madeline Marjorie McDowell. From a very young age Madeline danced because she had to dance. She couldn't help herself, and that joy was infectious. She put a smile on the faces of all who watched her.

As dancers, you all work hard to improve your technique, and that is important, but remember, it is nothing unless you really love what you are doing and express that joy in your dancing.

This award also comes with a $100 scholarship to be used by the recipient towards dance classes or a workshop. It is sponsored by the McDowell family.

Andy Aitken Most Promising Intermediate Award:

This award is given to the Intermediate dancer who, in the judge's opinion, displays the skills and attitude to progress into Premier. It is given in honor of Andy Aitken to thank him and acknowledge all of his hard work in running the dance competition and the Kansas City Highland Games for so many years.

This award also comes with a $100 scholarship to be used by the recipient towards dance classes or a workshop. Given by ScotDance USA Southwest Region.

Pre-Premier Awards:

Medals will be awarded to three places. Class trophies for Highland dances and another for National dances (provided the dancer has competed in both National dances for the Beginner and Novice classes) will be awarded. There will be no Class Trophy awarded in the Primary Class. Classes must have at least three dancers for a trophy to be awarded.

Premier Awards:

Premier dancers will receive cash awards for each dance as shown below. Class winner will receive a trophy based on all Highland dances and another based on all National dances. Classes must have at least three dancers for the trophy to be awarded. The Drysdale Award for the top Premier dancer of the day will be based on points for all highland and national dances. There must be at least six competitors who have competed in an age group in order for the aggregate points earned from those dances to qualify in calculating the overall winner for this award.

7 and under 12 Years	$30	$20	$15	$10	$10	$10
12 and under 16 Years	$40	$30	$20	$15	$10	$10
Over 16 Years	$50	$40	$30	$20	$10	$10

Premier age group may be combined based on the number of entries.
Dancers will be notified ahead of the competition.
